

ADDITIONAL PRACTICE

ADVERBS

A. For each sentence, identify the adverb that describes each underlined word. Then write whether the adverb tells how, when, where, or to what extent.

Example:

Our dog Sasha is a very loving pet.

very; to what extent

1. Sasha lay quietly on the rug.
2. She slept there in the afternoon.
3. She suddenly lifted her head.
4. She rose quickly from her spot.
5. She went to the door anxiously.
6. I soon heard a knock at the door.
7. Josepha, our mail carrier, pleasantly surprised us with a package.
8. Sasha greeted her noisily.
9. The happy dog stood there wagging her tail.
10. Josepha scratched Sasha lovingly under the chin.
11. Sasha always hears every sound.
12. Sounds often wake her from sleep.
13. She regularly announces visitors.
14. She is very happy to see our friends.
15. She is extremely cautious with strangers.

