

Using Commas Correctly pages 356–357

Look on page 356 of your textbook for examples of how to use commas correctly.

Use proofreading marks to correct each sentence. Write out the corrected sentence.

1. May I borrow your tool box so I can fix my bicycle Brian?

2. If I lend you my tools Rick do you promise to return them today?

3. The English language changed forever on October 14 1066

4. Before October 14 1066 the people of England spoke a Germanic language.

5. I think San Francisco California is an interesting city.

6. The oldest city in America is St. Augustine Florida.

7. I called out to him but he did not hear me.

8. The wind was blowing hard but it was not cold at all.

9. The site of the Constitutional Convention was Philadelphia Pennsylvania.

10. The document was signed on September 17 1787 by 39 delegates.

Proofreading Marks

^ add e take out ¶ indent ≡ capitalize / lower case
tr. transpose ^ comma „/„ quotation marks] [move